

CAMPUS BEAT

SATURDAY JUNE 25, 2022 A PRACTICAL NEWS BULLETIN OF PG DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM AND MASS COMMUNICATION Vol 5; No.41

Aloyseum inaugurates stamp gallery with more than 50,000 stamps at SAC

MERWYN

The stamps on display at Aloyseum

Campus: St Aloysius College Museum, inaugurated its Philatelic Gallery on 12 May. The gallery was inaugurated by Dr Charles Lobo, former chief post master general of the Karnataka Circle. The gallery has over 50,000 stamps from around the world. The collection of stamps on display was made by Late Br Gabriel Ferruccio, a Jesuit brother. After his death, the stamps were gifted to Aloyseum and the present exhibition contains about 2,700 stamps from 161 countries issued since 1854. Due to the lack of space only a portion of the stamps are currently on display and remaining stamps will be displayed in batches every four to six months. The Museum was started in 1913 by the Italian Jesuit Fr Chiapi and was shifted to the new building opposite the chapel for easy access to visitors. "Aloyseum" contains artefacts from around the world such as a Neolithic stone axe, pieces of the Berlin wall, articles from the Holy Land, a piece of rock from the Arctic etc. Smaller showcases contain nearly 2000 mineral specimens and fossils, rare stamps and currency notes of various countries. The dignitaries present at the inauguration were Dr Charles Lobo, former chief post master general of the Karnataka Circle, Fr Melwin J Pinto SJ, Rector, St Aloysius Institutions, presided over the event. Vidya Baglodi, renowned philatelist. Dr (Fr) Leo D'Souza SJ, former Principal St Aloysius college and SJ Kavitha, the curator of the museum.

Planting saplings to preserve environment at Kandavara

UTTY

SAC

Mr. Umesh Mulya planting the sapling.

Gurupura: Department of MSW of St Aloysius College (SAC) Autonomous, Mangaluru conducted a community program in one of the adopted villages of Kandavara, Gurupura on 19th June 2020. The main purpose of this program was on environment protection and planting trees.

The program highlighted a concept of 'Only One Earth' followed by planting and distribution of the sapling with regard to World Environment Day in collaboration with Kandavara Grama Panchayat, Sri Rama Sevanjali, Vidhathi Kalavedar, Kaikamba, Swa-sahaya Sangalalu, Vijaya Kesari Mahila Ghataka, Thanimaniga Seva Samethi, Mundal Samaja, Vijaya Kesari Friends and Ambedkar Bhavana.

The program was inaugurated by Mr. Suresh Sapaliga, member of Ambedkar Bhavana. Around 41 community people actively participated in the programme with interest and enthusiasm. 30 students from St. Aloysius College, Mangalore participated in the programme. The students who took part in this programme worked in the motivation of creating an environment day to plant saplings. Out of 100 saplings 35 sapling were planted in Ambedkar bhavan and the rest were distributed among the community people.

Community people were very much happy to take part in this event. The chief guest of the program Mr. Nagaraj, Mr. Umesh mulya, president of the panchayat, Ms. Geeta head of SHG and leaders of different social groups were part of the program Ms. Philomena Fernandes co-ordinator of centre for social concern were also present.

National level seminar on Entrepreneurship: Opportunities and Challenges

AMAL

Campus: The postgraduate department of Commerce, St Aloysius College (Autonomous), Mangaluru organised a one-day State Level Seminar on Entrepreneurship Opportunities and Challenges on 17th June 2022 in Eric Mathias hall of the College.

Mithun Bhat Kakunje, Director, Kakunje Group of Companies was the Chief Guest. Addressing the gathering Mithun Bhat briefed about the idea of business he holds. He explained the ups and downs in the business field. He suggested the participants accept failure and try to be a successful person in their field of interest. Rev. Dr Praveen Muttia SJ motivated the students to plan and execute the potential ity of the market and explore their ideas into business.

The first session was conducted by Ms. Vathika Pai, proprietor of Vathika International Travels and Head of Operations, Nirmala Travels. She is the former president of Kannara Chamber of Commerce and Industry. The session was about the Entrepreneurship Opportunities and Challenges.

The second session was conducted by Dr. Roshni Yeshawanth, Assistant Professor Government J RST Grade College, Kaup. The session was on Social Entrepreneurship - An Entrepreneurial Creation She covered the topic of An enterprise which takes care of the needs of the society as a whole.

The last session was by Dr. Sudhir Raj, Professor at the Justice K.S Hegde Institute of Management, NMAMIT, Nitte. He is the recipient of the prestigious Udupi District Karnataka State Rajyotsava Award 2020 for his contribution to education. The session about the career options that available in the world i.e. VUCA world (Volatile, Uncertainty, Complexity and Ambiguity) And Dr Raj spoke about the strategy that gives a long term value to ourselves and the stakeholders.

As the seminar taught them how courageous, collaborator and using a proper mindset helps an entrepreneur achieve the goal, the attendees reported a positive experience.

Socius Samashin Stigma a fest of public awareness

GOWTHAM

Campus: The department of sociology of St Aloysius College conducted first ever one day fest under the banner name of 'Socius Samashin Stigma'. The program was presided by the Rev. Dr Praveen Muttia SJ, Principal of St. Aloysius College, Dr. Alwyn D'Sa, Dr. Rosa Jimmy Mathew, Assistant Professor and HOD, Rural Development at School of Social Work, Roshni Nilaya, Ms. Joan Rita O'Brien, Assistant Professor at School of Social Work, Roshni Nilaya and HOD of Dept of Sociology and the students coordinators of the fest.

Then after the formal function it was followed by session of Dr. Roza Nimmy Mathew About the topic of 'Autism and Social Stigma, time to get over it' and session on 'Sexual health- let us not shy away' was conducted by Anuradha Shetty. The fest also included many competitions like slam poetry, Elocution and theme dance.

The valedictory was presided by the director of the admin block Dr. Norbert Lobo. The winners of the competition were honoured in the program. The winners of the competition were St. Aloysius College for slam poetry, St. Aloysius College and Milagris PU college for elocution and St. Aloysius College and Canara College for the Theme dance.

Aloysius Ranga Adhyayana Kendra organises Nage Ranga

KEERTHAN

CAMPUS: Mangaluru, Oct 18, 2021: St Aloysius Ranga Adhyayana Kendra (Dramatics association) organised a special program called "Nage Ranga". The program featured stand-up comedy, comedy skits and songs. The program began with a devotional song sung by Ms Divya Shetty, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Chemistry, St Aloysius College followed by a session of stand-up comedy by Ms Sandhya Shenoy, who left the crowd in splits with her comedic talent. Singer Ms Prathiksha Bhat, who works for Namma TV channel, rendered a popular folk song "Bannimudiyonubaara" and Mr Jeevan Siddi, a student at St Aloysius College, sung a theater song "Sharanembevo" from Kuvempu's Novel "MalegalalliMadhumagalu".

The actors from Maskiri Kudla team came up next with entertaining sessions consisting of two comedy skits in Kannada and Tulu. These were directed by a popular Sandalwood actor, Mr Prakash Thuminad, SIMA 2019 awardee.

Dignitaries included the Principal, Dr (Fr) Pravee Martis SJ, Registrar Dr Alwyn D'sa and Director of Aruppe block, Dr. Dennis Fernandes.

Invited performers, Ms Sandhya Shenoy, actors from Maskiri Kudla team, Mr Prakash Thuminad, Mr Deepak Rai Panaje, Mr Rajesh Muguli, JP Thuminad and Singers MsPratiksha Bhat and Mr Jeevan Siddi were also present.

The program was hosted by Mr Kush Achar, a student of St Aloysius College, who introduced the invited guests to the gathering.

Dr Dinesh Nayak, President of Dramatics Association, thanked (the aforementioned dignitaries) for their support and also requested them to honour the invited performers by offering flower saplings.

Principal also thanked all the artists and appreciated them for entertaining the gathering despite the difficult times of the pandemic. He also spoke about the importance of recognizing such talents amongst the younger generation these days and also stressed the need to appreciate such platforms.

Comedy skit by Maskiri Kudla

Blood donation camp at SAC

HEMA

CAMPUS: St Aloysius College (Autonomous) Mangaluru, under the banner of NSS and YouthRed Cross (YRC), conducted blood donation camp in association with Wenlock District Hospital, Mangaluru on October 13 at the college campus.

The camp was inaugurated at 9:30 at college main auditorium. Dr Sharath Kumar Rao, Blood Bank Officer at Wenlock

District Hospital, Mangaluru was the chief guest, Dr Denis Fernandes, Director, Aruppe block was the president of the inaugural program. NSS volunteers and YRC volunteer-shelped in the smooth conduct of blood donation camp. The camp was successful in collecting 79 units of blood in one day. It helped students to participate in charity and also helped to spread awareness of blood donation.

Students donating blood at the Blood Donation Camp

Personality development seminar at SAC

MERWYN

CAMPUS: The Post Graduate Department of Mathematics at St Aloysius College (Autonomous) conducted a seminar on Monday for its students at the LCRI Block. The session on Psychological wellbeing was delivered by Dr Audrey Pinto, coordinator of Postgraduate Department of Psychology, ALVA's College, Moodubidire. The seminar was organized to make students understand the importance of mental health and wellbeing. "Happiness is a habit which is basically an inside job" said Dr. Pinto who touched on many topics regarding personality development saying she's greatly inspired by the teachings of the Dalai Lama.

Dr. Audrey Pinto motivating the students

SACAA conducts Seminar on Stress Management in student's life

KIRAN

CAMPUS: St Aloysius College (Autonomous) Mangaluru, in association with its alumni association SACAA and the Department of Psychiatry, KMC Mangalore, conducted a seminar on "How to manage stress levels and problems in student's life".

Mr BS Mahesh, Assistant Professor, Clinical Psychology,

Dept. of Psychiatry, KMC Mangalore was invited as the resource person who emphasized the importance of positive stress (Eustress) to the participants. Mr Mahesh also provided strategies through which students can eliminate stress. He also conducted meditation exercises for maintaining mental peace. These activities were followed by

Q & A session.

The programme commenced with the introductory remarks, instructions and general welcome by Ms Paloma Rodrigues. The prayer was led by Oyston and Team. Professor Edmund Frank - Coordinator, SACAA Talks Committee, A delivered the welcome speech. Mr Stephen Pinto - President SACAA highlighted the importance of alumni association and offered a green welcome to the resource person. Mr. Suul Kunder introduced the eminent resource person Mr B.S. Mahesh to the gathering. Feedback was solicited from the participants. The programme concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by Ms Sneha,

Mr BS Mahesh emphasizing the importance of positive stress

CAMPUS BEAT

SATURDAY MAY 21, 2022 A PRACTICAL NEWS BULLETIN OF PG DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM AND MASS COMMUNICATION Vol 5; No.29

St Aloysius Makes History with First Ever TEDx Talk Event

AMAL

Rida Gupta on preserving culture through craft

Campus: For the first time ever, St Aloysius College, Mangaluru hosted the world-renowned TED talks version, titled TEDx SAC with the theme of "Into The Unknown!" TEDx SAC was an independently organized event, licensed by TED which was held on May 22, 2022, at St Aloysius College (Autonomous), Mangalore. Speakers present at the event were Pankaj Modi, Rahul Jadhav, Shashidhar Dongre, Rama Vaidhyathanan, Rida Gatphoh, Satshya Tharien, Haris Aboobacker, and Jasmir Thakur.

Pankaj Modi is a conservation architect by practice. He has contributed immensely to conserving India's heritage. His talk focussed on how heritage and culture have to be preserved.

Rahul Jhadav, an ex-convict, an underworld hitman, and a drug addict, shared his journey from being chased by the authorities to being an ultramarathon runner. For his inspirational talk, Mr. Jhadav received a standing ovation from the audience.

Shashidhar Dongre, a senior executive at L&T Technology Services, talked about the importance of science theatres and about many scientists who are great artists as well. His talk helped the attendees to see the theatre from the perspective of science.

Rama Vaidhyathanan, one of the foremost Bharatnatyam dancers of her generation, has a performance career spanning more than 35 years. Her talk focused on the nuances of dance mudras and their vital importance in dance performance. She ended her talk with a sublime dance performance.

Rida Gatphoh, a NIFT graduate and the founder of Dak, ti Crafts, spoke on sustainable products to preserve the rich heritage and adept craftsmanship of Meghalaya. She enlightened the attendees about the culture of the North East.

Satshya Tharien, an edutainment content creator and an award-winning journalist based in Mangalore, talked about the importance of regional language in the outside world. An Alumna of St Aloysius College (Autonomous) Mangalore, Satshya educated the audience that people with knowledge of the regional language are being preferred for many job opportunities.

Haris Aboobacker, a digital marketing expert and recognized as an early member of the LinkedIn Creator Club is the founder of Haris & Co, a marketing agency. His talk was on the work culture and a new concept of FEAT culture standing for Freedom, Empathy, Accountability, and Transparency something that he has developed in his company. He is also an alumnus of St Aloysius College (Autonomous) Mangalore.

Jasmir Thakur is a life coach and the Founder Secretary of Sambhavana, an all government-certified organization that flourishes in the spheres of Child Protection, Education, Gender Diversity & Inclusivity, Human rights and Corporate Social Responsibility. He talked about how men face difficulty with a female-centric law and order and how third-gender people are still being troubled for rights and criticized for what they are. He added Soul has no gender.

The audience at the event came from all walks of life, including working professionals, students from different colleges, parents, and intellectuals.

Econovanza organised by Dept of Economics at SAC

MERWYN

Chief guest Ms Aruna P Kamath inaugurating the fest

Campus: The Economics Department of St Aloysius College conducted Econovanza 2022, on 18th of May. The one-day fest was inaugurated by chief guest Ms Aruna P Kamath, Principal, SDM College, Mangalore. In her inaugural address Ms Kamath spoke about the various skills required for the overall development of an individual and gave emphasis to thinking out-of-the-box to succeed in life. Other dignitaries present were Dr Norbert Lobo, Director of Admin Block, Associate Professor of Economics, Dr Priya S Shetty, H.O.D of Economics and student coordinators of the fest Miss Joicy Pinto and Ankith.

The theme was reunion, as the annual competition was a standstill during the pandemic. The inauguration was done in a unique way, on the lines of thinking out-of-the-box by dropping a coin in the piggy bank. The fest featured ten different competitions like Eco-Model Making, Budget Preparation, Fashion show, Mad Ad, Essay Writing, Elocution, Quiz, Turn Coat and Mockalation; with nine teams participating. The Overall Champions were II B.Sc. and runners-up award was bagged by II B.A. both of St Aloysius College.

Dr Norbert Lobo in his presidential address said "Contests like these are a process for development, and will boost your career. Winning is not important, taking part is very important, because not everyone can win." The valedictory address was given by Dr John Edward D'Silva, Director of Xavier Block, St Aloysius College and was felicitated for attaining superannuation.

A Gesture of Compassion: Baby Koel Rescued in SAC Grounds by Students

UTTY

Campus: A juvenile Indian Koel was rescued during the musical day celebrations at the Mother Theresa peace park of St Aloysius College (Autonomous), Mangalore on May 14, 2022. The bird was rescued by two students of SAC, Keerthan Somanna, a student from the Department of MA JMC, and Sharanya Bhat, a student of BSc.

The bird, belonging to the cuckoo order of birds, the Cuculiformes, was abandoned as there is no parental care provided by the species because cuckoos do not make a nest of their own and are called "brood parasites" meaning they lay eggs in the nests of other birds to outsource the parental care. The rescued bird was too young to fly and was found hanging on a tree in the park. The bird was successfully rescued and was handed over to Mrs. Rajini Shetty, an animal lover from Ballalbagh who is taking care of sick and injured animals and birds for the last twenty-two years. The bird is now under her care and will be released back to the wild once it becomes strong enough to fly.

SAC Touches Hearts at Orphanage

GOWTHAM

Students interacting with the staff and cleaning the surroundings

Mangaluru: The students of St. Aloysius College (Autonomous) visited De Merced Orphanage Pander Deralakatte last week as part of the college outreach program. At the children's home, the students interacted with the inmates of the orphanage and conducted several cultural programs and games. They also entertained the inmates by cutting and arranging firewood and by cleaning the garden of the orphanage. The students of SAC were accompanied by staff members of the college. Ms. Binni Chan, Ms. Vijayalaxmi, Ms. Valerie Rosslyn, and Ms. Philomena

LAYOUT EDITOR: KIRAN MANGALURU 575 003

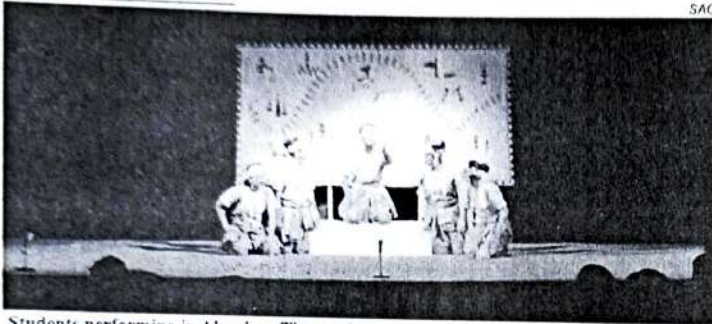

Principal EDITOR: MERWYN
ST. ALOYSIUS COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS)
MANGALORE-575 003

CAMPUS BEAT

SATURDAY, APRIL 23, 2022 A PRACTICAL NEWS BULLETIN OF PG DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM AND MASS COMMUNICATION Vol-05; No. 26

Aloysius Theatre League for the First Time in SAC

GOWTHAM

Students performing in Aloysius Theater League

Campus: St Aloysius college (Autonomous) organized Aloysius Theatre League (ATL) for its students. Aloysius Theatre League Season 1 was inaugurated by Dr. Chandra Shekhar Shetty T of Post Graduate and Research Studies Department of Physics.

Rev Fr Dr Praveen Martis SJ Aloysius Theatre League, council director Anup Vergas and Student council president

Mr. Vijay Ashwin Cardoza were present on the occasion.

The league was inaugurated by lighting the lamp and beating the drums by the dignitaries. Five teams took part in the ATL in which students were chosen by the method of auction. All the teams had been assisted by the faculty members of St Aloysius College (Autonomous) as mentors.

In the girl's category, Josna secured first position as best actress and the second place was shared by two performers: Anagha and Shraddha.

In the boys' category, first position was secured by Nandhu as best actor and second by Mayur. The team with best theme was secured by Satwika. And overall winners of this mega event were Aangika and second place was secured by Satwika.

Street Play Organised at SAC

UTTI

The cast along with Principal and faculty

Campus: Radio Sarang 107.8 FM, in collaboration with the department of Journalism, of St. Aloysius College (Autonomous), Mangaluru presented a street play in Mother Teresa Peace Park on 20 April 2022.

Street Play, titled 'Socho, Sanjho, Phir Share Karo'. The objectives of this programme was to teach about how fake messages are being shared on social media platforms. Students from BA (Journalism) and MA (Journalism and Mass Communication) jointly performed the play.

The chief guest for the program was Rev. Dr Praveen Martis SJ, Principal of SAC and Fr William Marcel Ro-drigues, HOD of M.A Journalism and Mass communication were also present. "As we know critical thinking is an important component of St Aloysius College and also promote Satya Meva Jayate that is the truth of India", said Rev Dr Praveen Martis SJ in his speech.

Miss Bhavya Shetty, Assistant Professor, Department of UG Journalism, St. Aloysius College (Autonomous) took the initiative to guide the students.

It was sponsored by Factshala India literacy network campaigning all over India & Directed by Meghna Kundapura, Script and Lyrics by Manoj Vamanjoor.

IGBC Student Chapter Inaugurated at SAC

MERWYN

Mr D B Mehta handing over the certificate to Dr (Fr) Praveen Martis SJ

Campus: The Student Green Building Council (IGBC) was launched at St Aloysius College as a part of its Green Initiative. The program was launched by Mr D B Mehta, Chairman, IGBC, Mangaluru Chapter handing over the certificate to Dr (Fr) Praveen Martis SJ, Principal, St Aloysius College. Mr Mehta addressed the gathering about the need of Green Building, the importance of student participation in green initiative, and the steps to take to create a green campus and green society.

The first among non-technical colleges to take initiative towards establishing a Student Chapter of IGBC. The Principal congratulated and appreciated the students for this venture.

The steps already taken by the institute towards environment friendly campus and the efforts of persons behind making it possible were also highlighted.

Thirty six students from Eco Warriors and seventeen students from We Care group were present at the event and gained knowledge about the new venture. Faculty members, Mr D B Mehta, Chairman for Social Concern and Centre for Environmental Concern were present to support the initiative.

IGBC is a part of CII-Godrej Green Building Council which is actively involved in promoting Green Building concept in India. The council is represented by stakeholders of construction industry comprising of corporates, government nodal agencies, architects, product manufacturers, institutions etc.

The vision of the council is to serve as single point solution provider and be a key engine to facilitate all Green Building and Net Zero activities in India.

Ramadan the Festival of Togetherness and Love

AMAL

Believers gathered to break the fast

Mangaluru: Ramadan is considered the holy month of Islam. Ramadan, is the ninth month of the Muslim calendar and the holy month of fasting. It is a festival of love and togetherness. It begins and ends with the appearance of full moon.

Every year Muslims around the world fast during the light hours. After the sunset prayer, Muslims gather in their homes or mosques to break their fast with a meal called iftar that is often shared with friends and family. It's common for mosques to host iftars, especially for the needy. Different cultures have different traditions during the Ramadan, most of these traditions, include sharing food and inviting people for the iftar. However these traditions have been less festive for the past two years. But this year Karnataka has come back to the pre-corona situation. Ramadan is a period of atonement than it is a time for Muslims to practice self-restraint. The end of Ramadan is marked with the seeing of second full moon.

CAMPUS BEAT

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 06, 2021 A PRACTICAL NEWS BULLETIN OF PG DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM AND MASS COMMUNICATION Vol-05; No. 08

INTER RELIGIOUS DEEVAVALI CELEBRATED

Merwyn

Pic credit: SAC

Lighting the lamp and diyas by the dignitaries on the dais

Campus: St Aloysius College (Autonomous) continuing the tradition of promoting inter-religious harmony, organised 'Deepavali Celebration' - the feast of lights, on Thursday, at LCRI block, Robert Sequeira Hall, Dr Ismail N, former Principal, Badriya PU College and Secretary of Mahatma Gandhi Peace Foundation; Mr Roy Castelino, PRO, Mangalore Diocese; Shri Ranjan Bellapardi, Co-ordinator, Ramakrishna Mission, Mangalore were the Chief Guests and Rev Dr Praveen Martis SJ, Principal presided over the programme.

The programme began with a prayer followed by a cultural programme that involved a short skit performed by the students of Dramatic Association wherein they shared their childhood experiences and perspectives of the festival of lights. It was followed by a mesmerizing welcome dance performed by Samskriti and team. The cultural programme ended with a melodious and lilting song by Nandini Ganiga and team that evoked the importance of dispelling darkness and spreading knowledge and love all round, especially with the less fortunate.

The programme was inaugurated symbolically by lighting the Lamp and Diyas by the dignitaries on the dais. Dr Ismail in his speech said, "We have traversed a long journey from the ancient practices and have reached the times, when we give importance to humanity and harmony. This Diwali festival and such other events develop harmony among people." Speaking on the occasion, Sri Roy Castelino said, "Diwali is one of the biggest and auspicious festivals celebrated by Hindus all around the globe. The message of Diwali is relevant to everyone, regardless of your faith or background; goodwill always prevail over evil, light over darkness and friendship over enmity. Although there are different reasons to celebrate Diwali, they have common concept-new beginnings. Jesus in his short life span in this world preached and practiced peace and compassion. Wherever He went he was a source of inspiration."

Ranjan Bellapardi, in his speech said, "Like other festivals in India, Deepavali also has 3 dimensions, namely, Religious, Economical & Spiritual. Religiously, Deepavali celebrates the death of demon Narakasura by Lord Krishna, which symbolically signifies the victory of good over evil, ego and darkness. It also marks the return of Rama to Ayodhya along with Sita and others. He enunciated several meaningful rituals and practices followed during the festival and their relevance and significance. And Dr Fr Praveen Martis SJ, spoke to the gathering in his presidential address.

Pic credit: SAC

Success is always a sweet one despite the effort you put in it. Better one

NCC Air Wing cadets of St Aloysius College Autonomous, Mangaluru won over-all championship in the 10 days ATC camp held at Joseph Engineering College, Vamanajour

LAYOUT EDITOR: HEMA

'CAMPUS THEATRE' IN MANGALORE

Keerthan

Pic credit: Sujith Kumar

C Basavalingaiah (in the right) sharing his knowledge

CAMPUS: St Aloysius College Ranga Adhyayana Kendra with collaboration with 'Journey theatre group' Mangalore, had organised a theatre workshop 'Anveshane' in the college. This 40 days workshop has 21 participants who are college students from different colleges in and around Mangalore.

The team 'Anveshane' is now ready to perform a kannada play "Shastra Santhana" on November 15th in LCRI Hall at 6.00 pm. This play is directed by alumnus of St Aloysius College, Raghav Suri who was a part of NSD and Sudheesh Kudlu, who was the part of Rangayana. 'Shastra Santhana' is based on a Hindi novel 'Shastra Santan' by Rameshwaram Prem which is translated to Kannada by Siddhalinga Pattanashetty.

"The main motive of this particular workshop is to develop interest about the theatre among the teens. With the financial support from the Journey Theatre Group, we are trying to provide opportunities for students through 'Campus Theatre' by mainly concentrating on college students in and around Mangalore" says Sudheesh Kudlu, one of the directors of the play.

C Basavalingaiah, a popular Indian theatre director and the first director of National School of Drama Bangalore, had visited the workshop and spoke about the importance of the theatre and also advised the participants to use this golden opportunity and to learn from the experience.

The former student of St Aloysius College who studied B Com has been felicitated with Dakshina Kannada Rajyotsava Award 2021 for her achievements in the field of Power Lifting.

Pic credit: SAC

Do not underestimate the women power. She is the one who brings the PRIDE.

Nishel Delphina D'Souza from 1st BCom C batch of St Aloysius College (Autonomous) secured Gold medal in both Junior And Senior category in State level weightlifting Championship held on 31.10.2021 in Davanagere.

Pic credit: SAC

Success is nothing but a PHASE. A PHASE that doesn't stop till it reaches its goal.

Principal

EDITOR: GOWTHAM

ST. ALOYSIUS COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS)
MANGALORE-575003