Anti ragging Committee meeting

December 10, 2021-3.00pm
Conference Room

Agenda of the meeting

- Revised procedure for students to file online anti-ragging affidavit
- Creating awareness on anti-ragging among students

Mr Donnet D'Souza welcomed the members and requested Fr Vincent Pinto the finance officer to lead the team into prayer

Rev. Fr Praveen Martis S.J Principal of the College welcomed the members and gave his initial remarks

The coordinator of anti-ragging cell highlighted students' grievances related to behaviors indulging in ragging and drug abuse in the previous academic year and also asked members to give their valuable suggestions to create awareness among students and make ragging free campus. He also initiated the need of forming revised procedure for students to file online anti-ragging affidavit.

During the meeting, it was discussed that the coordinator can send a notice through the principal to all directors, heads of the departments, class guides (PG), and staff welfare officers (PG) on the procedure to file the online anti-ragging affidavit by students as per the mail sent on 25 November 2021

The coordinator can contact all the class guides (PG) and staff welfare officers (PG) and ask them to instruct them to file the online anti-ragging affidavit and for that Google forms can be prepared and sent to all students

Once students file the online affidavit, they will receive a reference number and they are supposed to forward it to the coordinator by filling up the Google forms

Members of the committee suggest that there can be regular activities conducted on campus to create awareness of anti-ragging or to decrease behaviors among students which leads to indulging in ragging

During admission as well orientation programme a session can be organise to highlight the importance of anti-ragging and students required follow the guidelines

If any students experiences or find any such behaviors inside or outside the campus, can bring to the notice of student representatives, class guides, HOD, or Deans.

The block directors can take up such cases and forward them to the coordinator for an inquiry and submit the report to the director and principal

Students who are found to be guilty, do not follow the rules and regulations or indulge in such behaviors can be taken strict action on them as per UGC guidelines.

The information regarding anti-ragging can be put up on the notice boards in the form of collages, and posters as per UGC guidelines
