This certificate is to declare that Ms. Shalmali K has been a part of our organization for a month, working as the Content Development & Applications Intern from January 30th, 2023 till March 4th, 2023.

During this time, we found Shalmali to be professional, honest, hardworking and loyal towards her duties and responsibilities assigned. She has taken a keen interest in learning and implementing her responsibilities in a sincere way. Her work reflected thoroughness in understanding and implementing the knowledge gained towards the duties assigned. Her engagement methods with the team and leadership had always the certainty to offer the most reliable way of support and also her overall behavior with the pupils and other staffs are praiseworthy.

According to the records, Ms. Shalmali has done a good job in achieving the objectives and goals that were set during the initiation of internship program. I strongly believe that her perseverance and enthusiasm for learning qualities will help her reach greater heights. She is an asset for any institution she intends to join.
