To Whom It May Concern

This is to certify that Mr. Ngaopulou Sou has successfully completed his internship in the CHEMCHEMI INTEGRAL DEVELOPMENT CENTRE, here at Kifaru, Kilimanjaro region, Tanzania.

Mr. Ngaopulou Sou engaged in various activities that included socio-economic and pastoral surveys, community engagement, and educational initiatives. His tasks involved:

1. Conducting detailed surveys to assess the Pastoral and Socio-economic situation and needs of the communities in Kifaru Parish, with a particular focus on Kalimani sub-station.
2. Planning and implementing new initiatives aimed at improving the lives of children, youth, and women in the parish and surrounding areas.
3. Providing training sessions for the children of Rupert Children Home, focusing on enhancing their educational and personal development.
4. Organizing and delivering training programs for the staff and teachers of Rupert Children Home, aimed at improving their skills and effectiveness in managing and educating the children.
5. Conducting counseling and motivational sessions for the students at St. Joseph Boys Science Secondary School, addressing issues such as distraction, concentration problems, peer group pressure, and self-motivation.
6. Giving classes to the students of Bethany Girls Secondary School in Mwanga, Tanzania, focusing on enhancing their academic knowledge and personal growth, women empowerment and setting SMART goals.
7. Assisting in the project preparation to establish a pre and primary school in Vikuge Village, Kibaha District, to provide education to local children.
8. Conducting aerobics sessions for all the school students mentioned above, aiming to boost their cognitive abilities and critical thinking skills.
9. Collaborating with teachers to provide group work sessions aimed at helping slow learners improve and supporting other students to achieve excellence in their education.

During his internship, Mr. Ngaopulou Sou, displayed exceptional dedication, professionalism, and a genuine commitment to the welfare of the communities he served. His contributions were invaluable and greatly appreciated by both the local community and the Priests of the Mangalore Africa Mission.

We wish Mr. Ngaopulou Sou all the best in his future endeavors and we are confident that he will continue to excel in his fields.

Sincerely,

Fr. Joseph Rodrigues
